Article 19

(1) The Government shall take all necessary measures to facilitate the entry into, and sojourn in Austrian territory and shall place no impediment in the way of the departure from Austrian territory of the persons listed below, shall ensure that no impediment is placed in the way of their transit to or from the headquarters seat and shall afford them any necessary protection in transit:

The privileges and immunities accorded by Article 20 are conferred, not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in order to safeguard the independent exercise of their functions in connexion with OPEC. Consequently, it is incumbent upon a Member Country as well as upon any State sending observers to waive the immunity of any of its representatives or of the Governor nominated by the respective State, in any case where, in the judgment of the Member Country, the immunity would impede the course of justice and where it can be waived without prejudice to the purposes for which it was accorded.

Article 22

Officials of OPEC shall enjoy within and with respect to the Republic of Austria the following privileges and immunities:

(3) Where the incidence of any form of taxation depends upon residence, periods during which the persons referred to in paragraph 1 may be present in the Republic of Austria for the discharge of their duties shall not be considered as periods of residence.

Article 25

(1) The privileges and immunities accorded by Articles 22, 23 and 24 are conferred in the interest of OPEC and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. Consequently, it is incumbent upon the Organization to waive the immunity of any of its officials or of any person covered by the provision of Article 24 in all cases where the immunity impedes the course of justice and where it can be waived without prejudice to the interest of OPEC. In any case where these privileges and immunities arise, the official or other person involved shall immediately report to the Secretary General, who shall decide, in consultation, where appropriate, with the Board of Governors, whether they shall be waived. In the case of the Secretary General, the Conference of OPEC shall have the right to waive immunities.

(2) OPEC and its officials shall co-operate at all times with the appropriate Austrian authorities to facilitate the prompt execution of the laws of the Republic of Austria and to prevent the occurrences of any abuses in connexion with the privileges and immunities accorded by this Agreement.

(2) The Government shall furnish persons within the scope of Article 22 with an identity card bearing the photograph of the holder. This card shall serve to identify the holder in relation to all Austrian authorities.

Article 28

The Secretary General shall take every precaution to ensure that no abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement shall occur. Should the Government consider that abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, the Secretary General shall upon request, consult with the Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Austria to determine whether any such abuse has occurred. If such consultations fail to achieve within a reasonable time a result satisfactory to the Government and to the Secretary General, the matter may be referred by either party for final decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators: one to be chosen by the Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Austria, one to be chosen by the Secretary General and the third, who shall be chairman of the tribunal, to be chosen by the first two arbitrators. If the tribunal is not constituted within three months from the date of the request made for the submission of the dispute to arbitration, the appointment of the arbitrators not yet designated shall be made by the President of the International Court of Justice at the request of the Government or of OPEC.

Article 29

Any dispute which may arise between the Government and OPEC as to the interpretation or application of this Agreement, shall, at the request of either of them, be referred to arbitration. (3) Consultations with respect to modification of this Agreement shall be entered into at the request of the Government or OPEC. Any such modification shall be by mutual consent.

(4) This Agreement shall be construed in the light of its primary purpose of enabling OPEC at its headquarters in the Republic of Austria fully and efficiently to discharge its responsibilities and fulfill its purposes.

In witness thereof, the respective representatives of the Republic of Austria and of the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries have signed this Agreement.

Excellency,

With reference to the Agreement between the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries and the Republic of Austria regarding the Headquarters of the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries, to which I have this day affixed my signature, I have the honour to propose that:

(1) The articles mentioned in paragraph (7) of Article 12 of the Agreement may be disposed of without charge only for the benefit of international organizations or charitable institutions.

(2) Having regard to Article 38 (1) of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations and to the practice of Austria, the Republic of Austria will accord persons referred to in Article 26 of the Agreement – persons of Austrian citizenship and stateless persons resident in Austria -- only the immunity from legal process of any kind in respect of words spoken or written, and of acts performed by them in direct connexion with their official business.

(3) In accordance with the practice of the Republic of Austria which is in conformity with Article 42 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations to which Austria is a party, diplomatic agents accredited to the Republic of Austria may not practice for personal profit any professional or commercial activity. It is understood that the same restriction shall apply to all persons to whom the Agreement accords the same privileges and immunities as are accorded to members, having comparable rank, of diplomatic missions in the Republic of Austria.

(4) Persons to whom the Agreement applies, who are not Austrian nationals or stateless persons resident in Austria, shall not benefit from Austrian regulations governing family and maternity allowances.

(5) Without prejudice to the provision of Article 22 (g) of the Agreement, officials of OPEC and persons, other than officials of OPEC, performing missions authorized by OPEC or serving on specialized organs of OPEC, working parties or other subsidiary bodies of OPEC shall be allowed, over and above the facilities granted by the Agreement, to make transfers to other countries up to a maximum amount of one thousand U.S. dollars (U.S. $1,000.00) per year, to the debit of accounts in Austrian Schilling held in their names at Austrian credit institutions; if the afore-mentioned persons wish to make Austrian currency transfers exceeding the amount mentioned above, such transfers shall be authorized by the Austrian authorities up to the amount of all salary previously received in Austrian currency by the person concerned from OPEC, provided that OPEC agrees that the amount to be transferred shall be deducted from transferable Austrian currency balances of OPEC.
If OPEC agrees to this proposal, I have the honour to propose that this note and your note of confirmation shall constitute an Agreement between OPEC and the Republic of Austria, entering into force on the same day as the Headquarters Agreement.

Accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
